LIGHT COMMITTEE.

Can Agree On a City Electric Light Superintendent.

But Cannot On the Apportionment
of the $225.

The council will likely meet Monday night in called session to consider the superintendency of the city electric light plant. It is understood that the committee has decided on the appointment of Mr. Frank Davis, but is unable to agree on the apportionment of $225 per month appropriated for the plant.

This amount is now divided by the superintendent to suit himself. Part of the committee desire to apportion
this themselves, as follows:
Superintendent, $85; engineer,
$60; fireman, $40; trimmer, $40.
The committee has thus far failed to agree on the apportionment question.
The mayor will at the called meeting Monday, present the first report of condition of lights, number that burned, etc., ever tendered the council. During the forty days to Feb.
24th, 7.92 of the lights were out.

Died in Toledo.
Mr. Joseph Minsky, of Toledo, Ohio, died last night. As a result of the store of Mr. A. Rosenthal, on East Court street, wore crepe today.
The deceased was a near relation of Mr. Rosenthal.

REPORT WILL BE READY TOMORROW.

The Court of Inquiry Expected
At Key West Tonight With Full Report of the Investigation.

MOVEMENT OF OUR BATTLESHIPS.

It Is Expected That Spain
Will Be Called on For a Large Indemnity
Immediately.

HER REFUSAL TO DO SO WILL MEAN WAR.

Key West, Fla., Feb. 26.—The naval board of inquiry is expected to arrive here tonight from Havana, and it is expected that the report will be sent to Washington tomorrow and made public at once.

Admiral Sicard is here preparing as fast as possible for the emergency of war. The battleship Detroit is due here. The Marblehead is here and the New York is on her way
here.

If the report of the naval board shows treachery, an indemnity will be demanded at once, and a refusal by Spain will mean war.
Washington, Feb. 26.—Secretary
Sherman corroborates the story that an indemnity will be asked if treach-ery is proven. It is believed that twenty million dollars will be demanded, and if that be refused by Spain, then war will follow.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Secretary
of War Long has decided not to go Key West to meet the board of inquiry, but will remain here. He consider the situation far too grave to be absent even one day. The report will be sent to him as soon as it arrives.

Spanish Theory Completely Over- thrown.

Havana, Feb. 26.—Patience is necessary on the part of the people of the United States in the Maine investigation. Notwithstanding vexatious delays, real progress is being made by the divers. Captain Samp-son's naval board has been able to gain the fullest information showing that an accident through lack of discipline is in the nature of an impossibility.

This branch of the inquiry brings out what was well understood, that the officers and the crew of the Maine
were under the strictest discipline,
because, although, on the surface,
the visit of the Maine was friendly, Capt. Sigbee had taken proper precautions against hostile action.

The board has not yet directed the examination of the hull plates. While the divers' examinations show that some of the smaller magazines may have exploded, the fact that the main ten-inch magazine was not exploded seems to have been conclusively established. The story of the finding of the ten-inch copper cylinder was correct. The Spanish authorities adhere to the theory of a fire in the ship first and the explosion afterward. The result of the divers' is conclusive against this theory. Though these reports are carefully guarded, it is known what they have found in the interior of the wreck has demolished the theory of fire before the explosion.

In the uncertainty of the relations of the United States to the Autonomist party is overlooked. Its Central Committee has formally approved the plan, which is a confession of the failure of the present scheme of autonomy and an offer to the insurgents to concede everything except the withdrawal of the Spanish flag.
negotiations are actually opened with the insurgents, Govins and the radical Autonomists, the proposition will be rejected.

The intransigents are still hostile to the government. Among them the Maine inquiry is adding to the smothered anti-American feeling.
The authorities profess to be able to hold it in check.

De Lome Growing Reckless.
Liverpool, Feb. 26.—Senor Dupuy
De Lome, who arrived here yesterday on board the White Star line steamship Britania, is quoted as saying in an interview:

"I have decided not to speak on the subject of my letter to Senor Canalejas. I can say, however, that I have been from the first the victim of misrepresentation. The news published in the American papers and sent to this country and my own
was, from beginning to end, made up of lies of the most infamous character. The allegation in the American papers that the terrible explosion of the Maine was the outcome of a Spanish conspiracy is, in my opinion, another instance of the reckless manner in which newspapers in America work upon popular prejudice."

A Window Broken Out.

window glass at Mrs. Friedman's millinery store was accidentally broken out by Mr. John B. Hobson, who was trying to keep his friend,
Mr. Chas. Bundy, from seeing the country hand.

HARMONY THE WORD.

Republicans Gather Today in Louisville to Talk Over the Situation.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 26.—The meeting of republican friends of Gov.
Bradley held in this city today was called together at 2 p. m. at the Galt House. The meeting was well attended by prominent republicans
from all parts of the state. The sentiment expressed by all in attendance
was that harmony should rule in party affairs and factions should be eliminated.

TROUBLE AT EDDYVILLE.

Marshall Jenkins Enjoins the Collection of School Taxes.

Marshall Jenkins has enjoined the town of Eddyville from collecting any more school taxes on the ground that it is illegal. Eddyville, he claims, was put in the wrong class of cities by counting the convicts as citizens. It is said that even the convicts do not regard themselves as being permanent citizens of Eddyville.
The affair is quite an unusual proceeding. When a census was taken of the town, convicts were counted in that city might be placed with those of the fifth class.

A DAYLIGHT THEFT.

A Negro Tramp Runs Off With a Pocketbook.

A negro tramp stole a pocketbook
containing a few dollars this morning from a table on the back porch
at Mr. J. W. Cleaves' residence on West Jefferson street.
The tramp applied for food, and incidentally picked up the pocketbook, which had carelessly been left there by one of the ladies. Officers went out to investigate the case but could obtain no clue.

Nine People Lost Their Lives in a Disastrous Tenement House Fire in Charleston.

Charleston, S. C., Feb. 26.—Nine persons lost their lives in a tenement
house fire here this morning.

Leitchfield, Ky., Feb. 26.—This town was today visited by the worst fire in its history. Eight stores,
Methodist church and Deposit Bank building burned at a loss of $40,000.
A defective fuse was the cause.

TOOK $315.

Bold Burglary Committed About
11 O'Clock Last Night.

A Man, at the Point of a Pistol,
Takes a Good Sum
of Money.

Some one knocked on the door of
Mrs. Dan Burk's room, 1334 West
Broadway, about 11 o'clock last night. Mr. Burk is a hostler, employed at the I. C. shops, and his wife thought it was he. When she opened the door a man presented a pistol at her and ordered her to give him $300 he knew she had in the house.

The money was in her bosom, and she began unpinning it. She was not quick enough, and he removed several of the pins used to secure the money in place, himself. There was $315 of it, all in bills, and he made his escape with it.

Mrs. Burk screamed until she aroused the neighbors, and a crowd soon rushed to the house. A search was made for the robber, but to no avail.

The scoundrel was either a negro or a white man disguised as one. He seemed to be perfectly familiar with the place and with where the money was kept.

It was reported this morning that the robber was a woman, disguised as a man and blacked. Chief Barber discredits the story that the robber
was either blacked up or a woman,
as the lady's gown was not soiled
when the villain unplanned the money.
The chief thinks it was a negro.

There is yet another theory to the robbery, and it is the one believed by the police. This theory is that the "robber" was a white man, and that more than one person knows who he is. It is expected that there will be sensational developments in the case.

Bill and Has Some Hot

J. Morgan Chinn.

GOEBEL BILL BEING DEBATED.

In the House This Afternoon and the Prospects of Its Passage Is Un-
certain.

DEBATE MAY LAST TILL TONIGHT.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 26.—The senate chamber was the scene of much excitement this morning. Senator Bronston paid his respects to Senator J. Morgan Chinn in the most caustic manner.

The trouble came up over the Bronston School Book bill, which passed the senate today and thus killed the Chinn School Book bill.

The Goebel Election bill is being debated in the house with poor prospect of its passage. The debate is expected to last all the afternoon.

SUDDEN DEATHS.

The Coroner Hears of Them After the Burials.

Coroner Phelps today received information that there had been two sudden deaths in the city two or three days ago. Both victims were colored, Henry Fletcher, of Ninth and Burnett streets, being one, but the name of the other the coroner did not learn. Both were buried when the information reached the coroner.
No death certificates were obtained, according to the coroner, and he intends to see that in the future no such burials occur.

TONIGHT.

Josh Simpkins at Morton's Opera
House.

The great rural comedy drama,
Joshua Simpkins, will be the attraction at Morton's opera house tonight.
The piece is full of good music, singing, dancing and fun. The saw mill scene in the third act is said to be wonderfully realistic. A genuine circular saw is seen in motion and,
just to show that it is the real article,
a board is sawed off a log in full view of the audience, after which Caleb Simpkins, uncle Josh's son, is lashed to the log by the villains and started toward the glittering teeth of the rapidly revolving saw.

A VIGILANCE COMMITTEE

May Be Organized to Abolish Tramps.

Officer Hoyer, who has the First ward beat, thinks that unless something is done to rid the city of the tramps who infest the town, the citizens will take matters into their own hands and organize a vigilance committee.

In fact it was openly talked of today, when the daring robbery of a helpless woman at the point of a pistol last night became known. The citizens intend to severely whip every tramp caught inside the city.

FEELING RISING.

Against the Mayfield Mob—Mass
Meeting to Be Held.

Mayfield, Ky., Feb. 26.—The feeling against the work of the mob
last Wednesday is rising at Mayfield,
and a mass meeting of the best citizens will be held Monday to denounce
the lynching and mob rule generally.
Notes of warning were sent to members of other negroes yesterday and many of them have left town. A mob said to have left before midnight to whip negroes, but no violence was done.

The preliminary hearing of In-feriary Superintendent Hughes, charged with being the leader of the mob which lynched five men in Ripley county, Ind., was begun at Cross Point Thursday.

SATURDAY, FEB. 26, 1898

The main feature of the records of the present Legislature will be unfinished business.

Economy in municipal management is a beautiful thing before election, but it doesn't satisfy the "boys in the trenches."

The treasury receipts in the first twenty-one days of February amounted to $21,348,318, or an average of over one million dollars per day.

At the rapid rate the construction of the main sewer has been pushed, it won't reach Court street during the administration of the present council.

The prospects are that the present session of the Legislature will be the most barren of any tangible results. It has been wasted in vain attempts to pass partisan legislation.

The bill to prohibit the sale, barter, loan or use of cigarettes or cigarette material passed the Lower House of the Legislature Thursday. The bill is a radical one, but in the right direction.

Today is the last day of the present session of the Legislature for the passage of partisan bills, with any hope that they may become laws. All bills passed after today are at the mercy of the Governor.

Two years ago the Democratic members of the Legislature gave the Republicans a few pointers in obstructive tactics. The Republicans are putting their experience into use, and the death of the Goebel bill may be one of the results.

The exclamation wails of Mr. Bryan and his friends will scarcely be appreciated in his own city, Omaha, where it is just announced that a $2,000 charity fund has been on exhibition for the relief of the needy for a whole month and there have not been a sufficient number of applicants in that time to absorb it.

Spain changed the whole plan of her war in Cuba; she allowed the United States to send relief to starving Americans in Cuba; she retired Weyler, and she made a disclaimer and apology for De Lome. All these concessions were forced from her by President McKinley. And when a demand is made for indemnity for the loss of the Maine, she will hustle around for the money just as promptly as ever.

MEXICAN silver dollars, which on January 1, 1891, were worth 83.7 cents, are today worth 45.5 cents, United States silver dollars, which on January 1, 1891, were worth 100 cents, are worth today 100 cents. This is the difference between free coinage and the system now in use in this country, and which the Republican party is unwilling to exchange for that under which Mexican dollars have fallen nearly one-half in value in seven years' time.

One of the most disgusting items going the rounds of the free silver "cuckoo" press of the state is the following: "It is notorious that newspapers depending for important news regarding the Cuban affair on the Associated press are being left far behind by their more progressive rivals who depend on original sources for their information. Among those tied to the tail of this so-called news-gathering association are all the Louisville papers except the Dispatch which gives not only later news but all the news without suppressing the most important part of it." This item is being circulated for the purpose of arousing public opinion in favor of the Associated Press bill now before the Legislature. Also the item is a glaring falsehood as any one can see who will compare the reports of the three morning dailies in Louisville. The Associated press reports of the Cuban affair are unexcelled for truth and reliability, and are free from sensationalism.

OVER $17,000,000 has been saved to the government by President McKinley's firm attitude in regard to the Pacific railroad matter. It will be remembered that the present administration rejected the arrangement of a former administration made with reference to the Union Pacific and insisted upon the full payment of principal and interest and succeeded in obtaining this amount, which was something over thirteen million in excess of what had been practically agreed upon by the preceding administration. When the matter of adjusting the government's claim upon the Kansas Pacific road came up, the reorganization committee offered $2,500,000 in settlement of the government claim of $6,300,000 principal and about a like sum in interest. This was rejected and steps taken by the government of officials to bid in the road even at the cost of advancing $7,700,000 in payment for the first mortgage. When the reorganization party found that the government was in real earnest in its determination to at least have back the amount of money originally loaned the road, at the last moment it agreed to pay the full amount of the principal, and this was accepted, in view of the reports of the experts, which stated that the road would not bring, if sold, the amount of the first mortgage, the government's second mortgage, and the accrued interest. By accepting the full payment of the claim, less the interest, the government omitted all necessity of investing $7,700,000 in the first mortgage, which would have been necessary before attempting to satisfy its own claim by the sale of the road, and in the judgment of the experts made an extraordinarily good bargain by getting back the full amount of the money advanced for the construction of the road. Thus the present administration by its firm stand in these two cases has obtained over $17,000,000 in excess of the sum which had been named prior to its accession to the control of the affairs of the government.

LYNCH LAW.

We were surprised to see in our morning contemporary in this morning's issue the suggestion that the negro, who committed the robbery on West Broadway last night, should be lynched. It is just such suggestions as that from people purporting to be law abiding that are responsible for the epidemic of lynch law that is disgracing some portions of our state.

There are certain crimes that are worthy of death; the brute who assaults the person of a defenseless woman should die; we can see in many instances how difficult, yes impossible, it is for human nature to await the slow operation of the law to avenge the outrage, and in such cases lynch law, while to be deplored, is yet perfectly human. But the effect of familiarity with the operations of lynch law are terrible upon the community itself.

The fair name of Kentucky and particularly of Mayfield has been tarnished by the latest case of lynching within her city limits. For the crime of burglary a man has been lynched by a relentless and merciless mob. The peculiar state of public opinion in Graves county that can tolerate such an occurrence is directly the result of the frequency of lynchings there in the past. The evidence against the negro was complete; he would have gotten the full penalty of the law for his crime. Mayfield would have been rid of his presence for a term of years, and a warning would have been given to others.

No one believes for a moment that the better class of the people in Graves county approve such actions; but the question is do those people do their part in shaping public opinion. By this act of the mob, the burglar who robs a house of a few valuables and the fiend who ravishes a woman are placed in the same category. What will be the next step? Are all crimes to look alike in Mayfield? The good people of Graves county should put a stop to the depraved public sentiment.

The victim of this week's mob at Mayfield was murdered just as surely as the victim of the dagger of the midnight assassin, and the members of that mob should be made to answer for their crime. The name of Graves county can only be purged of the stain through the medium of the courts.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

And Condolence Adopted by Jansen Branch No. 33, C. K. & L. of A., Feb. 18, 1898.

Whereas, It has pleased our loving Lord to call from this vale of tears, after a long and honorable sojourn, Mr. Henry Jansen, the venerable father of our revered pastor, Be It Resolved, That Branch No. 33 extend its heartfelt sympathy to Rev. Father Jansen, his aged mother, and to all the other members of the bereaved family, who always felt the gentleness of his disposition, and who knew, so well, the exalted virtue of his life; and we pray that the Sacred Heart of Jesus may fill their afflicted souls with divine consolation; and further, Be It Resolved, That the Branch have a requiem mass offered up for the repose of his soul, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent Rev. Father Jansen, the family of the deceased, and to the "Good of the Order" and the daily papers for publication.

Society Gossip

"Think not, oh, mortal, vainly gay,
That though from human woes art free;
The bitter cup I drink today
Tomorrow may be drunk by thee."

Harmless all malice if our God is high;
Fruitless all pains if He His help deny.
Patient I pass these gloomy hours away,
And wait the morning of Eternal day."

A few days past a friend wished to know the lines which Lady Jane Gray wrote while in the tower. The above are the lines. They were written upon the wall with a pin.

Mrs. Clint Wilcox returned Thursday from Mayfield, where she made a short visit.

Mrs. E. E. Ellis, of Dyersburg, is visiting her mother, Mrs. D. M. Flournoy, on Seventh street.

Miss Mary Boswell returned from Evansville yesterday.

Last night the little folks enjoyed a candy pulling at the Broadway Methodist church.

Prof. Moses' dancing school was quite a popular resort of amusement last evening. The dancing was enjoyed not only by the pupils but many outsiders. The cake walk was also an important feature of the evening.

Mr. Turner, of Chicago, formerly of Cairo, will arrive Sunday afternoon to be present at the Vaughan-Goodwin wedding.

Mr. Joe E. Yeargin, of Dyersburg, is in the city visiting friends.

Mr. Raymond Goodwin arrived today on a short visit to relatives.

Mr. E. A. Harris, of Memphis, arrived today to spend several days in the city.

Mrs. Robt. Mitchell will spend next week with Mrs. Goodwin, on Seventh street.

Mr. Lothar Smith, formerly of this city, now of Louisville, will spend next week with his grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Smith, on Jefferson street.

Mr. Simon Peiser lectured last evening to a large and attentive audience at Temple Israel.

Mr. John Sinnott left yesterday on a trip through the South.

The Ladies' Sewing Circle met yesterday afternoon at the Temple Israel.

On Monday evening Mr. E. W. Vaughan will give a dinner to his groomsmen, at which will be decided by casting lots which of his friends will be his "best man."

Blind Joe Mangum's musicale at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening was attended by an appreciative audience.

The many friends of Dr. Frank will be sad to learn of his sudden death which occurred at an early hour yesterday morning. The Sun with Dr. Frank's friends offers sympathy and consolation to the bereaved family.

SMART HATS ARE TILTED.
Womanhood no longer asks "Is my hat on straight?" If she does she belongs to the old-fashioned out-of-date class. The joke maker has been robbed again of his stock and pet themes. The new hat is responsible for it. The new hat is not to be set on straight. It must tilt and quite decidedly to one side. It is quite rakish—yes, but fashionable. Men have not yet gotten used to this fashion. In fact it makes them quite uncomfortable to see it, believing as they do that the tilted hat must be the result of an accident, for have not women, since the world began, or as far back as history goes, been anxious to have their hats on straight? Henceforth let no man inform his women folks that their hats are not on straight, for if he does he will straightway proclaim his ignorance of the latest notion of Dame Fashion.

Speaking of brides reminds me that the very latest fad is the "Matron of honor," if the bride is so lucky as to have a young married chum who can serve in that capacity. It is her duty to accompany the bride, the two preceded by the maid of honor. At the altar they are met by the father and the groom with his best man. At such a wedding recently, the bride was gown in white brocade, lined with pink. The bridesmaids wore pink taffeta under sheer muslin, tucked and run with tiny black velvet, and they had immense black hats with plumes. The maid of honor wore a similar gown, except that it was run with white satin ribbon and hers was an immense white hat with plumes.

METROPOLIS ENTHUSIASM.

Young Men March Through the Streets There.

Preparatory to Organizing For Military Service Should They Be Needed.

The young men of Metropolis, Ill., are eager for war, and are awaiting with no little impatience the summons. Metropolis has about as much patriotism to the square inch as any other city in Illinois, or any other state, for that matter, and the dauntless youth of that place don't propose to be behind in the matter of volunteering their services.

Last night there was a big demonstration there, with bands and enthusiasm and other reminders of war times. A correspondent at Metropolis writes:

There was a large turnout last evening of young men, accompanied by martial music, parading the streets of Metropolis, preparatory to organization in case war should be declared with Spain, and they seem to be thoroughly in earnest; and though war is something dreadful, which the writer knows from past experience, having participated in forty-two engagements, there is nothing that would cement the North and South so much as for regiments from both sections to be engaged in conflict side by side. It would be a restoration of brotherhood, and a bond of unity which could not be broken. It would do more toward developing our southern country than anything else, and be the closing scene of this century.

Business is dull, and everybody anxious for official reports concerning the Maine.

DIAMOND NECKLACE

Lost By A Young Lady of Memphis.

It Was Taken From An N. C. & St. L. Train, But Found.

Miss Carrie Hutchinson, of Memphis, who arrived night before last on a visit to Mrs. J. T. Donovan, had a pocket book containing a diamond necklace and several dollars stolen on an N. C. & St. L. train while en route to the city.

The purse was left on the seat while she went to the rear of the car to speak to a friend. When she returned it had disappeared.

The railroad company was notified, and today the young lady was notified that the company's special agent had found it, and would be in the city tonight. No particulars of the recovery were known at the local office.

Noubliez pas....

About the old story of the camel—how three philosophers heard about the animal and determined to investigate. The Englishman hunted through the folios of the British Museum, to find what had been said about the beast; the German went into his study, locked the door, lit his pipe and began to evolve a conception of the animal from his own consciousness; the Frenchman went down to Sahara to see.

AT TAYLOR COLLEGE.
Wife of President Wright Thankful to PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

one Sunday morning recently when he heard the minister give out the text from "the gospel according to Mark." He said as he went out: "Mark Hanna has been the cause of all our woes, and I don't believe in the ministers giving him their endorsement."

Before Dick Allen was hanged at Mayfield, he prayed. There was a steno-grapher in the crowd, and he took the prayer, which was as follows:

"Please, every one, pray for me. Of course my time has come, and I can't stay here no longer; and I hope I may find rest in the land beyond. I don't blame you white folks, for you have been wronged. I am a poor boy and works hard for a living, but I makes my living honest. Lord, look down on me, and Lord, hear me. Lord, of course you has promised to hear your children; now hear me. Lord, have mercy. I am not the lion's den, and I want you, to be with me as you was with Daniel. You white folks please, and my body to my father at Clarksville; and don't let these other niggers live on earth."

It is very nice for the Mayfield papers to say the people condemn such outrages against law and justice as perpetrated there Wednesday night, and to lay it all on to the "country people." The country people seem to take a great deal of interest in the affairs of the town, it seems. Mayfield thinks saloons are awful things, and for years has done without them. If they are so bad, however, and she had a few of them, it is somewhat interesting to contemplate what would happen there then. Most people would want to live somewhere else.

A few days ago, in the office of Circuit Clerk Thompson, an amusing incident occurred, says the Benton Tribune. A gentleman from a rural district in the country, was wandering from office to office, the clerk seeing the lights. He finally espied the typewriter in Clerk Thompson's office and asked Judge Shewfelt, who was present:

"Do you reckon my name is in that?" The Judge, after straightening his face replied that he supposed it was. But the gentleman was not satisfied that it was, and before leaving motioned the clerk out of the room and whispered: "If you got a chance, slip my name in that 'ar thing.'" Phillip only nodded assent.

The "Joshua Simpkins" company was brought over this morning in their special car on the 7:30 train from St. Louis. A creditable street parade was given in rural costumes about noon.

Why will you smoke any old cigar when you can get the Linnwood for 5c. Ask for it. tf

In Loving Remembrance of Lexie Lee Bolton.

Another home has been robbed of its choicest flower, the tenderest blossom. Other hearts made sad by the grim reaper, but "There is no death,—what seems so is transition."

This life is of mortal breath,—It has a suburb of the life elysian Whose portal we call death.

Little Lexie Lee, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. V. Lee Bolton, was gathered into the fold Feb. 12, 1898. He was born in Paducah Jan. 23, 1893, and although only five years old, was his mother's only company in his father's absence, he being a traveling salesman and away much of his time.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to this bereaved family in which the pride of the father and the very apple of the mother's eye has been taken. A precious one from us is gone, A voice we loved is stilled, A place is vacant in our home Which never can be filled.

Feb. 26, 1898. A FRIEND.

BOND FORWARDED.

Postmaster Fisher's Commission Expired—Mr. John Fisher to Be Assistant.

The official bond of Mr. F. M. Fisher, the new postmaster, was yesterday sent to Washington, and approved. The commission is expected next week, but not by March 1.

Mr. John Fisher, who is to be assistant postmaster, has been in the postoffice for a day or two, becoming familiar with the duties of the office.

KENTUCKY COUPLES

Married yesterday at Metropolis, Illinois.

Jerry M. Weaver, of Lamont, McCracken county, Ky., and Miss Jennie B. Spicer, of Hinkleville, Ballard county, Ky., were united in marriage at Metropolis, Ill., yesterday at 5 p. m. by Thos. Liggett.

Also James T. Maybra and Lulu Frazier, (colored) of Lovelaceville, Ky., at the office of Thomas Liggett.

KILLED THE MANAGER.

And Alba Heywood Reported to Have Been Shot.

Dewey Heywood, who is well known in theatrical circles, and has played in Paducah once or twice, received a telegram while in Mayfield yesterday, stating that his brother, Alba Heywood, had been shot in Longview, Tex., and that Heywood killed the manager of the opera house there.

Wyatt Bizer, colored, who claims somebody struck him on the head and knocked him down in Boyd's alley, was charged with being drunk. He denied the charge, but the evidence showed he was drunk. He is probably held and cut the hole in his head. He was fined $1.

Jake Haynes, a stranger, said he guessed he was drunk, and Judge Sanders guessed it would cost him just a dollar, with trimmings.

George Bradshaw, alias Bradley, colored, was arraigned on a charge of breaking into the residence of Mr. Louis Rieke, at Seventh and Jefferson streets, last night. A quantity of clothing was stolen, valued at about $26. Bradshaw was caught at Michael's pawn shop and carried to the city hall. Mr. Rieke soon reported the robbery and was requested to come to the city hall and identify the goods. He found them to be the same stolen from his home a short time before.

Bradshaw, alias Bradley, swore this morning that Jim Williams, whom he does not know, gave him the goods to sell at the pawn shop. He was held to answer in the sum of $300, and in default of bond went to jail.

Jesse Cothran, a boy, tramp from Altenburg, Mo., and another itinerant youth were allowed to go.

James Williams, another tramp who had his pocket full of "hand-outs," he said he worked for, was given thirty days on the streets.

DIED IN MISSISSIPPI.

Mrs. Maude Andrews Passes Away From Pneumonia.

HANNON HELD.

His Bond Is Fixed At the Low Sum of $1000—Many Concealed Weapon Cases On the Docket.

George Bradshaw Is Held For Housebreaking—Ed. Shaw Gets a Good Dose Of Justice.

Thomas Hannon, the young man charged with the murder of Will Hall, who was shot last Monday in Mechanicsburg, was held to answer by Judge Sanders today in the sum of $1000.

Judge Sanders received the testimony, and evidently believes from the evidence that there was at least some justification. The evidence is very conflicting. Mrs. Hall's statements not being corroborated. She was the only eye witness to the shooting.

There were concealed weapon cases galore in the police court today.

J. W. Browning, of Simpson, Ill., was charged with carrying a pistol. He was arrested here several days ago, and released on a $50 bond. Just as expected, he failed to show up, and his bond was ordered forfeited and a fine of $50 assessed and 20 days. The court said he would fix no more bonds in such cases so low. Browning was willing to pay fifty dollars rather than go to jail.

William Simmons, a mulatto from Birmingham, Ala., was arrested out by the "Y" with several white tramps. He had a Colt's revolver in his pocket. He said he was only tramping, and was fined $50 and sentenced to thirty days.

Wm. Weitzel, a white tramp from Cincinnati, was charged with carrying a razor. The razor was in a leather case, suspended by a string, and the defendant explained that he was not carrying it as a weapon, but as an article of toilet. That it was under his clothes, and he could not possibly have gotten to it in case of emergency.

Chas. Smith, another tramp, was charged with a similar offense, and offered a similar excuse. The court said that a pin could be a deadly weapon, according to the court of appeals, and fined each tramp $25 and ten days in jail.

Ed Shaw, a very black negro, was charged with carrying a pistol concealed. He was arrested last night by Officers Hughes and Block on suspicion of having stolen a brass watch from Mr. Tom Robison's coal office. Mr. Robison is confident of the negro's guilt, but has no proof. When arrested a pistol was found on his person, and something the officers caught might be a dynamite cap. Shaw admitted that he has been out of the penitentiary only a few months. He was fined $100 and sentenced to thirty days.

Robert Hurt, colored, charged with putting a spurious number on his wagon, was acquitted. He swore he did not know who put the number on.

The case against Kate Beasley, colored, charged with using insulting language, was left open until Monday.

Wyatt Bizer, colored, who claims somebody struck him on the head and knocked him down in Boyd's alley, was charged with being drunk. He denied the charge, but the evidence showed he was drunk. He is probably held and cut the hole in his head. He was fined $1.

Jake Haynes, a stranger, said he guessed he was drunk, and Judge Sanders guessed it would cost him just a dollar, with trimmings.
